

The Advertiser

Adelaide: Wednesday 28th September 2005
Food & Wine Section - page 7

DogRidge CADENZIA 2004 – McLaren Vale

(91 points; $22; 15.5 per cent alcohol; Zork; Grenache, Shiraz, Petit Verdot, Chardonnay) "Licorice, aniseed and musk give the top notes to this cutie, which is one of the more zany blends of the day. Below those pretty decorations, it's all prunes and cream, deep, intense, furry – it reminds me of Vacqueyras, on the Rhone"

...from DRINKS by Philip White – PLAYING RED;

McLaren Vale shows it's hand with another classic variety, this time the endearing and adaptable Grenache...

